

November 15, 2008

CDA OD Member Meeting

Learning Objectives

"Update on Diabetes Medications"

Yung-In Choi, MD

1. Understand pathological changes that lead to loss of glycemic control and contribute to insulin deficiency and resistance.
2. Describe current medications available for the treatment of type 1 and type 2 diabetes and its complications.
3. Discuss the rationale for comprehensive risk management to improve patient outcomes.

"Diabetes Self Management: Patient Outcomes Measures and Provider Expectations"

Mary Jean Christian, MA, RD, CDE

1. Utilize various health education techniques in the treatment of diabetes to improve patient outcomes.
2. Describe intensive insulin management, the risks and patient and provider barriers to insulin.
3. Design and implement individualized patient education for specific populations to improve outcomes of care.

"Pediatric Diabetes"

Tracy Bryars, RD, CDE, CLE

1. The participant will understand the difference between pediatric Type 1 and Type 2 Diabetes.
2. The participant will be able to identify the treatment goals for Type 1 and Type 2 Diabetes.
3. The participant will be able to recognize three challenges the pediatric patient and family experience in successful Diabetes control.